

Leap Tall Buildings At A Single Bound

Few people realize that a group can accomplish what an individual alone cannot do — even when it comes to individual advancement.

Nine army men are challenged to breach a wall. Watch with precision how they accomplish this feat in 30 seconds.

It's unknown how many attempts they took in practice before they nailed it. The point is, they strategize first, practice second, and don't give up until they nail it.

As your company faces the challenge of delivering new products and services to meet client's changing demands, it's wise to rely on the strength of your team to pull together to create and innovate.

After all, they are the ones in the trenches doing the selling.

Movie Link (2:20)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7zxFFpVltcg>

Motivational Discussion Questions

- What do you think the team did in order to figure out how to scale the wall? How does what they did apply to our team?
- What challenge do we want to overcome and what commitment are we willing to make as a team to practice until we nail it?